

Table of Contents of the Shipbuilding IPR Handbook

I Foreword

II About this handbook

Part One

III Common misunderstanding of IP protection

IV Definition of Intellectual property

V Definition of Intellectual property right

VI Mostly used IPR protection tools in the shipbuilding sector

1. Patent

- 1) Legal requirements
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcomings
- 4) International/European patenting avenues

Examples of patent in the shipbuilding sector

2. Utility model

- 1) Legal requirements
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcomings

Examples of utility model in the field of shipbuilding

3. Designs

- 1) Legal requirements
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcomings
- 4) International/European design registration avenues

Examples of registered designs in the shipbuilding industry

4. Copyright

- 1) Legal requirements
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcomings

Examples of copyright in the field of shipbuilding

5. Trademark

- 1) Legal requirements
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcoming
- 4) International/European trademark registration avenues

Trademark protection for distinctive product design
Examples of registered trademarks in the field of shipbuilding

6. Licensing

- 1) General situations where a license agreement would work favorably
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcoming

Example of licensing practice in the field of shipbuilding

7. Unfair competition regulations

- 1) “Unfair competition” acts
- 2) Advantages for the business
- 3) Shortcomings

Examples of applying “unfair competition” rules for IP protection

8. Contractual terms

- 1) Advantages for the business
- 2) Shortcomings

Example of recommended IPR/confidentiality terms and conditions

9. Business secret

- 1) Advantages for the business
- 2) Shortcomings

Overview of the mostly used IPR protection tools in the shipbuilding sector

VII Potential Knowledge Leakage Channels

1. Potential “leakage channels”

2. The most serious potential “leakage channels”

- 1) Own employees (including freelance work contractors)
- 2) Customers
- 3) Suppliers
- 4) Classification societies

Part Two

VIII Knowledge leakage prevention

1. Internal process

Guidelines for specific department: Sales and marketing department

2. External process

IX IPR infringement detection

1. Detection channels

2. Basic requirements for the detection channels

3. Detection means

X Guidelines for IP owners when others infringe their rights

XI Guidelines for companies facing IPR complaint

XII Innovation stimulation

XIII IPR practice and business strategy integration

1. Basic conditions of the integration

2. IPR practice and business strategy integration

XIV GuardSHIP

1. Introduction

2. Products and services

4. Benefit for the industry as a whole

5. Join the force

Annexes

Annex I: Glossary

Annex II: Addendum to Classification Contract - Intellectual Property Terms and Conditions

Annex III: Editors team